ONE TIME PROJECTS

These are projects that are anticipated to be completed in the year budgeted in this case 2017. They are not expected to continue as a regular annual expenditure and therefore not have an ongoing annual requirement for funding. However, some may require multiple years of funding to complete.

Prairie Dog colony restoration – Repairs to drainage and revegetation of area around the Manor House where PD's have been removed.

Irrigation water – Funds to be used to pay the first $100,000 of the 2017 irrigation water bill. The MD will pay the next $250,000 and anything over this total ($350,000) will be split 50/50 between the two organizations.

Stallion Pointe Trail improvements – funding for phase II of the Stallion Pointe Trail improvements.

Brannon Gearhart Park Sign – funds to replace the BG park sign with one from the family of signs.

Landscape/median beautification – funds to purchase plant material for the Deerwood Vista entrance island, one other island (TBD) and trim trees at the intersection of Ken Caryl Ave./S. Valley Rd.

Resident survey – funds to prepare, distribute and analyze a survey of residents.

DL playground, tables, benches – funds to be combined with MD funds to complete the playground and other site improvements at the DL.
