Home Improvement and Community Rules Document Draft

A work group comprised of resident volunteers from the Master Association's Covenant Control and Architectural Committees, as well as staff, have reviewed the current Home Improvement Rules document and submitted a draft of their suggested full revision to the Master Association Board for consideration. The document, referred to as the Ken-Caryl Ranch Master Association Rules, Regulations, and Procedures, is available at the link below. Residents are encouraged to review the draft document and provide feedback to Jenny Bernal at jennyb@kcranch.org. Once feedback is compiled and necessary edits are made, a final draft will be submitted to the Master Association Board for adoption at their Aug. 20 business meeting.
